Head Girl's Golf Coach

Xavier College Preparatory High School is currently accepting resumes and letters of interest from passionate and energetic candidates interested in the Head Golf Coach (Girls) beginning immediately. Coaching at a Jesuit high school is an invitation to animate the Ignatian Vision of the Xavier community, through care for the individual students, and a willingness to collaborate with colleagues sharing the Catholic, Jesuit mission of the school.

Competencies

- Direct and care for the entire program, including but not limited to, student-athlete and coach development, budgeting, equipment management and communicating clearly to student-athletes, coaches and parents.
- Build a cohesive team through a culture of trust, dedication, perseverance and love.
- Participate in teacher and coach formation programs.
- Participate in the co-curricular activities in the Xavier community.
- Understand and commit to the Profile of the Ignatian Educator and the Ignatian Pedagogical Paradigm.
- Attend departmental meetings.
- Collaborate with students, parents, faculty and staff.

The ideal candidate will meet the following minimum requirements for any position at Xavier:

- Serve as a guide with and for students on their formation journey in a Jesuit high school.
- Demonstrate respect and professionalism at all times, in keeping with the school's mission and Jesuit identity.
- Effectively relate to students and build positive relationships.
- Display excellent communication skills.
- Demonstrate the willingness and ability to listen, developing mutual trust with students and colleagues.
- Demonstrate the willingness to work with a diverse student body.
- Have previous coaching experience at the Varsity level.
- Preferably have a background in Jesuit education.

About Xavier and how to apply:

Xavier College Preparatory is a Roman Catholic high school that actively seeks, educates, and nurtures young men and women from a wide variety of ethnic, socioeconomic, and religious backgrounds in the Coachella Valley. In the tradition of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Society of Jesus, Jesuit education is committed to the development of the whole person through a challenging educational experience, spiritual and religious formation, and co-curricular involvement. Supporting the role of parents as primary educators, our entire school program is dedicated to developing conscientious leaders and agents of change who are intellectually competent, open to growth, committed to justice, religious, loving and compassionate in service to others for the greater glory of God.

Interested applicants should submit a resume and cover letter to Marcie Quagliani at mquagliani@xavierprep.org
